TURKEY AGREES TO ARMISTICE

SECRETARY DANIELS INSPECTS NAVY YARD

Addresses Workmen--Dedicates Y. M. C.
A. Hut--Gives Strong Address

This has been a busy day for Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels. He arrived here at the Portsmouth station at 10.11 when he was met by Captain Almy and escorted to the navy yard. He was received with all official ceremony by Rear Admiral Clifford J. Bousch. At 11 o'clock he was given a reception at the commandant's residence where he met all the officers and their families. At 11.30 he dedicated the new Y. M. C. A. hut at the naval prison and at 12.30 he addressed the yard workmen from in front of the commandant's residence. He is very popular with the workmen and when he arose to address them he was given a rousing cheer.

He gave an outline of the work of the navy and referred pleasantly to the fine work being done here. At 2 o'clock he started on his way to Manchester where he is to talk and returns here this evening to address the citizens at the Portsmouth theatre. The dedication of the new Y. M. C. A. hut at the navy yard which has been built for the men and guard of the naval prison occurred at 11.30 today, the formal dedicatory exercises being in charge of Hon. Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy.

Owing to the limited space on account of the number of men at the prison the number of invitations issued was not large. Arrangements were made to seat 1000 men from the prison and the remainder of the available space in the hut was reserved for guests, these being confined to officers of the army and navy and representatives of churches and organizations. Rear Admiral Spencer G. Wood, U. S. N., commandant of the first naval district, was a special guest at the gathering.

The chairman of the dedicatory exercises was Lieut. Commander Thomas Mott Osborne of the naval prison. The principal address was given by Secretary Daniels. Lewis A. Cross, chairman of the National Y. M. C. A. National War Work Council of the North Eastern department gave

TURKS TO HURRY PEACE

(By Associated Press)
London, Oct. 31.—A note from Turkey asking for peace is expected momentarily by the allied governments, the Daily Express says it understands. The allies, the newspaper adds, will demand complete and unconditional surrender.

(By Associated Press)
London, Oct. 31.—Marshal Foch's armistice terms arrived in Berlin on Tuesday night, a Berlin newspaper says, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

London, Oct. 31.—Turkey has agreed to an armistice.

Disaster threatens the Austro-Hungarian army from Steier to the Adriatic as they prepare to evacuate Italian territory. All the Italian armies now have entered the great offensive against the Austrians and the allied troops are advancing rapidly along the entire front from Lake Garda to the Adriatic. Fighting actively on the western front remains at virtually a standstill. The total of Austrian prisoners is approaching 40,000. Apparently Austrian forces along the Piave have been separated from the army in the mountains west of the Piave and the allies already threaten their rear. Along the lower Piave Italian 3rd army has crossed the river and taken up the pursuit. Between the Brenta and the Piave the 15 Austrian divisions operating there have been cut off. Elsewhere the Austrians must retire northward from the Alps with the Italians, British and French pressing hard at their heels. Austrian troops also are retiring from Serbia and the left wing already has crossed the Danube Vienna announces. The Serbs have reached the Danube and the fall of Belgrade and the complete liberation of Serbia would seem a matter of a few days, if not hours. In western Serbia the Austrians are also marching north.

AGAIN ASKS HURRY PEACE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Oct. 31.—Minister Ekengren of Sweden delivered to Secretary Lansing today the note of Count Andrassy new Austro-Hungarian foreign minister asking the secretary to intervene with President Wilson for favorable action on the Austrian request for American and allied armistice terms.

SIZING UP SITUATION

The Boston Herald had a very fine special article on the political situation in the Wednesday edition by a special writer. He predicts a Republican victory in the state despite the strong efforts being made to defeat George H. ASK U. S. TROOPS TO QUIT RUSSIAN SOIL

Amsterdam, Oct. 31.—Russian Foreign Minister Tchitcherine addressed a note to President Wilson, Oct. 24, according to Petrograd newspapers, saying:

"As a condition of the armistice during which peace negotiations have begun, you in your note to Germany demanded the evacuation of occupied territories. We are ready, Mr. President, to conclude an armistice on this condition and request you to inform us when you intend to withdraw your troops from the Altman coast, Archangel and Siberia."

As the State Department has never recognized even the existence of the Government of which M. Tchitcherine is a part, it is not probable that his note will elicit a response. It is regarded as quite natural that the Germans supported Bolshevik Government should have been made nervous by the impending collapse of the military party in Germany and Austria.

EARLY DRAFT CALL FOR 200,000 MEN

Washington, Oct. 31.—Men of the new draft ages will first be mobilized in large numbers early in November, under a draft call now in preparation at Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder's office.

It calls for the entrainment of more than 200,000 men for general military service. They will be supplied, in proportionate numbers by every state in the Union.

Draft calls suspended during October, because of the influenza epidemic have been renewed in sections where the epidemic has moderated, and entrainment of all men under the October calls probably will be completed before the November quota starts to the cantonments.

SHIP OUTFIGHTS HUN SUBMARINE

An Atlantic Port, Oct. 31.—A torpedo and shell-fire attack by a German submarine on an American tanker, a British freighter and a Norwegian freighter, on Oct. 21, 700 miles from the French coast, in which the tanker stopped to engage and apparently out fought the U-boat was described by the crew of the Norwegian ship, which arrived here Wednesday.

The three vessels were traveling together, the Norwegian crew said, when the submarine made its presence known by launching a torpedo at the Britisher. The enemy then appeared on the surface and with two deck guns opened fire on all three ships at the same time. The vessels scattered, and the Britisher, being the fastest, was soon hull down on the horizon. The Norwegian ship, which was unarmed, moved off in an opposite direction, while the American, turning so as to present a stern target, opened fire and in short order made the U-boat submerge.

The day following, the Norwegians added, a periscope appeared about 400 yards off the port quarter, and moved up until it was square abreast the ship. Expecting a torpedo momentarily, the crew prepared to take to the lifeboats. The submarine, however, made no attack but pushed forward.

The day following, the Norwegians added, a periscope appeared about 400 yards off the port quarter, and moved up until it was square abreast the ship. Expecting a torpedo momentarily, the crew prepared to take to the lifeboats. The submarine, however, made no attack but pushed forward.

LOCKS VICTIM IN MEAT COOLER

Police authorities of Derry and Lowell, Mass., are searching for the whereabouts of a slick crook who rifled the cash register of the High street market, Derry, after locking the proprietor F. Runnels, in the refrigerator. He made his get-away with $50 and up to last night had not been apprehended.

The man, of whom Mr. Runnels is unable to offer any description, rode up to the store in a Ford runabout, which he is alleged to have stolen from John Simpson of Lowell and for which he is wanted by the Springfield police. After purchasing a few small groceries at the store, a small establishment at 13 High street, he made the request for a pound of lard. The proprietor entered the refrigerator, where the supply was kept and as he did so, the customer slammed the door of the cooler. After smashing the cash register and gathering the array of bills and coins and coins he walked out of the store, according to a small boy and rode away in the car.

Mr. Runnels was rescued by a customer a half hour later and, although 1000 pounds of ice had been placed in the refrigerator the same day, did not suffer any serious results.

The machine was stolen in front of the Lowell police station and in it was a light top coat, which the Nashua police say was worn by the operator of the machine as he rode through that city.

The Republican National Committee endorsed the Federal Suffrage Amendment as a method in June 1918.

"The tasks of the women lie at the very heart of the war, and I know how much stronger that heart will beat if you do this just thing and show our women that you trust them as much as you in fact and of necessity depend upon them," said President Wilson when he went before the Senate on September 30th.

SENATE ROW BLOCKS RECESS

Washington, Oct. 31.—Plans for an adjournment of Congress until after election appeared Wednesday night to have been blocked by the partisan conflict in the Senate.

Less than a quorum of the Senate is in Washington and Republican leaders said they would exercise their power to prevent the proposed recess in order that the Senate may discuss any developments in the peace negotiations.

Democratic leaders were understood to be prepared to forestall another outburst of partisan debate by making a point of no quorum. It was conceded by Republicans that the Democratic plans could be carried out, thus forcing an adjournment of the Senate from day to day.

Introduction of resolutions bearing on the proposals of the Central Powers is expected today, but in view of the power possessed by either party to force an adjournment, no discussion of the resolutions is expected.

Because of the situation in the Senate, it was considered doubtful whether House leaders would attempt passage today of an election recess resolution, causing a continuation of the existing three-day recess schedule.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of homes are sold annually at 10c and 50c per box. All druggists have them or will supply them on the preceding terms.

He has done his full duty in the War--BUT

He does not spend his time BOASTING. He does not use the Flag for Advertising Purposes.

And by the way, many New Hampshire men in France have performed deeds of valor. Many have been cited for bravery. Many have been decorated for gallantry.

Can you imagine one of them boasting of his deeds? Even in their intimate letters to their fathers and mothers, there is no hint of such a thing. There is pure Americanism. Can you imagine those boys coming home and going about the state making speeches, claiming that their wounds and their valor entitle them to office?

We will be glad to put them in office when they come back, but they won't demand it.

Yet there are those who, because they have made a few speeches, claim that the people are under obligation to elect them to office.

The Best American is he who does his full duty quietly and conscientiously in the shipyard, the factory or the office and doesn't BOAST ABOUT IT.

The BEST AMERICAN is he who DOES HIS BIT and doesn't make it the basis of his candidacy for office.

Boost Portsmouth Over The Top For Governorship

The man who is trying to defeat Portsmouth's candidate for Governor advertises himself in our own city as the "People's Lawyer." Portsmouth's candidate gave up an equally good law business when the war began to become a "WAR WORKER" and "THE SOLDIER BOYS' FRIEND." The opposition candidate has practiced law every minute until this political campaign began, and therefore has no war-work service that he can talk about. He, therefore, like a good criminal lawyer, tries to abuse our candidate and our fine old city. The fact that he advertises his "law business" indicates that he expects to continue it, and does not expect to be Governor.

Watch the movements of his "agents" among us. Wouldn't it look better for them to boost a Portsmouth man. It is Portsmouth's fight. Let us "go to it."

WILL DEMAND RELEASE OF ALL PRISONERS

(By Associated Press)

London, Oct. 30.—That the release of all of the British prisoners held by the Germans will be made a part of the general terms of the terms for an armistice is understood. Sir George Cate, the Home Secretary, informed the House of Commons that the same condition imposed upon Bulgaria in this respect will be insisted upon and that General Allenby has been instructed to follow the same procedure in dealing with the Turks.

There is plenty of evidence that the British prisoners have received the worst treatment at the hands of the Germans.

The Light Breaking in Germany.

That the truth is beginning to dawn on some Germans is not on Germany is indicated by a dispatch from Amsterdam quoting statements made a few days ago in a speech by Vice Chancellor von Payer, who said that one of the greatest hindrances to peace was the belief of the enemy that the German people are politically deprived of their rights and are so oppressed and so dependent on small ruling classes as to constitute a constant danger to the peace of the entire world. He declared that this hindrance must be removed and that to this end the government "has instituted far-reaching internal reforms which are long overdue."

Perhaps this reform has actually been begun, but the world is very skeptical of German "reform" just at this time, and this fact is also making trouble for the Teutons, according to Vice Chancellor von Payer, who further said: "We need confidence, not merely at home—we need the confidence of foreign countries, even the confidence of our enemies. For we want peace and we need it."

This makes it very clear that the vice chancellor is seeing the light, but he did not stop there. He went on: "Our enemies distrust our sincere intention to conclude a peace of justice. They distrust mainly on the ground of many events in the past, concerning which we cannot take it amiss of them if they have certain doubts."

There was talk that ought to be good for the German rulers, although it must necessarily be unpalatable. But it was the plain truth, something with which the Germans ought to be much more familiar than they are. Continuing, Mr. von Payer said: "We have therefore no use for anyone in the German government who still favors a peace of force more than a peace of justice. What we need in order to be able to exist is an unequivocal, honest and straightforward policy. That alone can promote our welfare in the future."

Not long has talk of this sort been coming from Germany. These words are extremely significant. If they do not express the views of the ruling powers they show that there is an element in Germany that recognizes the inevitable, and the fact that there must be a complete change of conditions before that country can regain the confidence of the world, which was forfeited by the beginning of this cruel war and the wanton manner in which it has been conducted by leaders who felt themselves in a position to defy the world.

The awful crime and mistake are now recognized by some, as the vice chancellor makes plain, and sooner or later it will have to be recognized by all. Until such recognition becomes general in Germany that nation must continue to suffer the penalty of her criminal blunder, for the world is determined to rid itself forever of the spectre of brute force as the ruler of the world.

It is announced that the Hughes aircraft investigation report will soon be in the hands of the president, but that it will not be published before election, and "perhaps not at all!" And yet there are many who feel that "investigations" are the nation's surest and practically only safeguard.

It is estimated that there were about 200,000 visitors at Camp Devens last Sunday. Undoubtedly the soldiers and the visitors enjoyed the occasion immensely, but was it just the thing to permit such congregating there so soon after the quarantine had been lifted?

The National War Garden Commission estimates that since March 31 the daylight conservation has meant a net gain of $329,409 years composed of eight-hour working days! Great indeed is conservation under the hands of the mathematicians.

The American Defense Society has been sounding the candidates for Congress on the question of peace with Germany, and it finds them almost unanimously in favor of unconditional surrender as the only acceptable condition.

Remember that the columns of this paper are always open to communications and suggestions of a helpful character from the people of Portsmouth and vicinity, whom it is endeavoring to serve to the best of its ability.

Any one depending on noise and red fire for information would hardly realize that election is so close at hand. But the voters should remember that it is the ballots that count, and not the noise.

Now there is talk of advancing express rates another 10 per cent. If things go on in this way much longer government ownership will be liable to lose some of its glamour.

MORE CHANGES IN HUNGARY

The Czechs Slovaks have cut the railroad between Berlin and Vienna and German trains can go only as far as Schnadau according to a Zurich dispatch.

RUMORS OF MORE INFLUENZA AT DOVER ARE DENIED

Rumors were going the rounds in this city today to the effect that six new cases of influenza had been discovered in Dover within the past 48 hours. The city has at present 16 victims of the influenza and they are all old cases.

an address in behalf of that organization. Mr. Crossett was first representative commissioned to go to France in 1917 and he has recently returned from another trip.

William McColligan, one of the prisoners, who wrote "The Atom—His Mark," responded for the prisoners.

The prison band escorted Secretary Daniels from the prison to the hut after he had made an inspection of the prison.

The hut, which is the work almost entirely of the men at the prison, has been erected near the prison building; it is 112 by 40 in the main building and 26 by 54 for the recreation or social room. The main room is for meeting and entertainment and the other is a club room, filled with a fireplace and a number of Colonial easy chairs.

The hut has two pianos, writing and reading tables, etc., and affords ample space for all sorts of indoor amusements. Religious services will be held there on Sundays, musicals given and educational work carried on; also motion picture shows given through the week.

Y. M. C. A. Secretary G. W. Garrett, who has been on duty among the men at the naval prison, will be in charge of the hut. Secretary Garrett passed ten days as a prisoner there upon coming to the yard before his identity became known among the men, doing this for the purpose of studying the men at the prison and is held in high regard by all.

The men are enthusiastic about the new Y. M. C. A. hut and its advantages are much appreciated by them.

An Open Letter

To My Fellow Citizens of Portsmouth:

Being very anxious that the people of my city shall not be deceived by the secret agents of my opponent who are infesting our city for the sole purpose of preventing us from having a governor, I make this statement. First and foremost, I have supported the President in every movement and in every request since the war began. It has been a support of "deeds" as well as words. It has cost me my business which means several thousand dollars, all my expenses and time wholly gratuitous. On every platform I have urged the most loyal support of the President. I meant it and I mean it now. I shall continue to do so whatever happens. So much for that.

My opponent lives in Concord. He is a Democrat. He is a smart lawyer both for and against corporations. I do not choose to say anything against him personally. But he asks your support for him because he supports the President, and therefore I should tell you the fact, viz: He has not made a speech for any drive since the war began until this political campaign began, and then, only one speech at the Shattuck plant in this city when he was accompanied by two other Democratic candidates for office. That is a fact. In the state convention he admitted it and justified it by saying that he had been attending to his "own business," although he is rich. I am informed that he has been entirely inactive even in his own city of Concord on all of the war drives in which that city has a fine record. He has been trying cases in this county since the war began.

The only importance of this fact is his claim now that he has supported the President, and that he should be elected over myself because of such support. People "up the state," who know, laugh at his claim. This is a great war center and I do not want my people here to be misled either by his advertising, or secret agents.

The question is shall old Portsmouth be put on the map again and have a governor at a time when very critical things are coming up in this state for us all?

I do not, and have not criticized the President in war matters. I have tried to forget that he was partisan. Our minds were on the boys, being wounded, and dying. For them our hearts went out. For them our hearts were bleeding, and we were sacrificing, and doing living and giving.

But when, as a reward for all this, on the part of Republicans the President, not as President, but as the head of the Democratic party, said that no Republican should be voted for, then I felt hurt. I felt that it was ungrateful in him. He said in effect that all Republicans were disloyal and could not be trusted in public office, and that all Democrats were loyal and must have all the jobs. That touched my pride and sense of fair play. Republican boys are dying in France, and yet their Republican fathers cannot hold any office in our "free" America. They were not supposed to vote for me, although I had worked day and night for the war and our boys, but were to vote for the Concord lawyer who had done nothing. Of course the President made a mistake when he went so far. Many Democrats have told me so. All men make mistakes, but we must not allow them to deceive us. He probably did it to help his son-in-law be the next President. But when war is so critical he ought not to plunge into politics so deep. Lincoln, McKinley and Roosevelt did not do the same thing under such circumstances. Don't be deceived by false quotations of history.

Republicans must not be excluded from our government. It would harm the government to put them all out and have nothing but Democrats there. Both parties are necessary safeguards.

Six Republican congressmen have even resigned their seats in congress and enlisted in the war, and one of them, our dear old friend, "Gussie" Gardner, has lost his young life in the service and yet no Democrat has resigned from congress and gone to war, not one. Are we to come to this, that one party can stay at home and have all the "jobs" and "snaps" and the other party give their lives, and their money, and then be slapped in the face for it? Never, not in good old New Hampshire! That might do in the South, where the Clarks, Kitchens and Dents live, and where people do not vote as they please, but not here.

It is not a question of a vote of confidence in the President. He is not running for governor of New Hampshire, nor for the Senate or House. As the Rev. Dr. Talmadge said in his sermon on Sunday, the President should have said, "elect to congress the very best men and the best patriots, no matter which party they are in."

There are in Congress, still living, members of the Grand Army of the Republic. They are Republicans. Yet, if the President is to be followed, they must be kicked out of their jobs in their old and declining years. This must never be. The voice of Stark and Langdon must still speak in New Hampshire.

I have no word of criticism of New Hampshire Democrats in this war. They are among my best personal friends. So it is particularly here in Portsmouth. They are supporting me for governor. For this I am under the deepest gratitude.

In closing this interview, I wish to summons my friends and fellow citizens to be on the alert every minute. False stories and reports are used to prejudice and deceive by out of its just due. Let us all go "over the top" on Nov. 5, and give old Portsmouth the biggest boost in her history.

Yours very truly,

JOHN H. BARTLETT.

October 30, 1918.

THIS STATE WILL NOT EXTRADITE LANDRY

The State of New Hampshire has refused a requisition from Maine for the extradition of Willie Landry of Lewiston, his wife, Mrs. Della Landry having sworn out a warrant for his arrest for non-support of the minor children.

ceived a letter from Joseph S. Matthews, the Assistant Attorney General of New Hampshire, saying that Landry testified he had not been in Maine since September, 1912, and it appeared admitted by all, that he had not been there since 1916. "In other words, it appeared to be clear that he was not a fugitive from justice for any violation of the law of 1913 because he had not been in Maine since that law was passed," Mr. Matthews wrote.

Another Republican Paper Comes Out for Jameson:

North Conway Reporter—"On Friday, the 27th, the old caucus convention system will be again resurrected at Concord to nominate a candidate to fill out the unexpired term of the late Senator Gallinger. The only avowed Republican candidate is George H. Moses who withdrew from the primary contest and by a mutual agreement threw his strength to Gov. Keyes for a consideration. It does appear that out of respect of those 8,000 voters who supported Ex-Gov. Spaulding that he should be tendered the nomination. What is the use of trying to call black sheep? Why not call it a spade a spade and be done with it? Moses cannot be elected if nominated and his defeat would certainly drag Gov. Keyes down to the same level. No sane Republican believes in his heart that Moses can be elected. Mr. Spaulding proved to be the strongest Republican in the State and when it comes to the election, he would not only carry the State big for himself but would carry the other State candidates along with him."

Directly after the convention the same paper said: "The Republican Convention, met in Concord last Friday to nominate a senatorial candidate in contest the state of New Hampshire. It resulted in a landslide and that was the result of the campaign of George H. Moses. He is nominated and it is up to him to get his election."

"The Democrats in convention on Monday, to nominate a candidate for the short senatorial term, found an excellent candidate in Mr. John B. Jameson of Andover. Mr. Jameson is one of the cleanest of men and has been active in carrying out war plans in this state. He has always been a Democrat and never betrayed his party either; he is absolutely 100 per cent of a man."

"Henry Ford of Michigan is the Democratic candidate for the United States Senate at the 'urgent insistence' of President Wilson. Henry Ford said in Detroit: 'I DON'T BELIEVE IN THE FLAG. IT IS ONLY SOMETHING TO RALLY AROUND.' Then, pointing to the starchy banners floating over his great factory, he added: 'WHEN THE WAR IS OVER, THOSE FLAGS SHALL COME DOWN, NEVER TO GO UP AGAIN.' When the word patriotism was mentioned, Mr. Ford burst forth with the assertion THAT HE DID NOT BELIEVE IN PATRIOTISM, THAT NO MAN IS PATRIOTIC AND THAT THE WORD PATRIOTISM IS THE LAST RESORT OF A SCOUNDREL. This is the man who has proclaimed himself a candidate for membership in the Senate of the United States at the 'urgent insistence' of the President. President Wilson still 'urgently insists' that this man become a member of the Senate of the United States. For what purpose? To be a rubber stamp."

Will the Democratic candidates with "High Ideals" explain the President's endorsement of Henry Ford? Mr. Voter: Apply the "Acid Test" of Patriotism by voting for loyal Republicans and not for rubber stamp Democrats. It was John A. Dix who said: "If anyone tries to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot."

TO KEEP TROOPS MOVING OVERSEAS

Washington, Oct. 30.—The first of the new divisions raised since early last summer are on their way overseas. Their identity will be disclosed when the War Department receives official announcement of their safe arrival. The shipment of men to the western front will be speeded up in the near future. Commanders of several divisions, including the twelfth at Camp Devens, have notified the department that they are ready for overseas service and the divisions will receive orders to proceed to ports of embarkation as soon as the influenza epidemic, which has retarded troop movements, subsides. This department is confident that not less than 250,000 will be sent overseas each month this winter.

Much comment is heard in military circles whether officers, commanding certain divisions will go overseas with their men. A moot question is whether Major General Leonard Wood, who has trained and now commands the 10th division at Camp Funston will be permitted to accompany the division. Some say he will be withdrawn as he was withdrawn when he started with the 8th division, the first organization he trained at Funston; others believe it is possible that he will be permitted to go.

ADMISSION, 50c, $1.00

Lincoln, McKinley and Wilson

"Wilson extends his dictatorial power now over everything. He not only wants the sole control of the government, and of the conduct of the war, in its thousand ramifications, but in addition he also aspires to manipulate the elections, thus curtailing the opportunity of a people of one hundred millions to exercise to the limit its constitutional rights. Wilson's methods are the act of a degenerate man, just as in 1917 he thought less than nothing of international law when it suited him to do so."

"This has a familiar ring. Sounds like Roosevelt or Hays. As a matter of fact, it is a clipping from the Cologne Gazette, semi-official mouthpiece of the German High Command. Reading this, where do you think German hopes lie?"

The Cologne Gazette predicts Wilson will be overwhelmingly repudiated next Tuesday. Roosevelt and Hays hope so.

Germany doesn't like the way Wilson is conducting the war.

DO YOU, MR. VOTER?

BY HEEDING WILSON'S APPEAL NEXT TUESDAY THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL MAINTAIN THIS COUNTRY'S LEADERSHIP AMONG THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD.

KIDNEYS WEAKENING? LOOK OUT!

Kidney and bladder troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow upon you, slowly but steadily, undermining your health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Hamlet Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you feel that you are entirely free from pain.

This well known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1906 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The good housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Hamlet Oil Capsules. Their use restores strength and is responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Hamlet Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

"FORDS"

Now that new Ford Cars are scarce the next best thing to do is to have your present car put in good running order. With a little care and very small expenditures you can keep your car up to date and in good mechanical order. But when you have these things attended to be sure and insist on getting genuine Ford parts. There are many substitutes and imitations and they are all supposed to be just as good but if your car is worth spending any money on it at all, why not use a little care and see that it is repaired right by using genuine Ford parts manufactured by the Ford Motor Co. of Detroit.

We have a large supply of parts in stock ready for immediate use.

RUSSELL AND OWENS GET A DRAW

The boxing fans of this city and vicinity had a good night Wednesday when the Knickerbocker A. C. presented their opening bill before a crowd that taxed the capacity of the hall, the gallery especially being packed. They were also a well-satisfied crowd for all of the bouts were fast and clever and with all kinds of action.

Paddy Owens of Boston and Johnny Russell of New York were in the twelve-round main bout and the decision of Johnny Glover, who was the third man in the ring, of a draw was fair and satisfactory to every close observer of fighting in the hall. There is no getting away from the fact that Russell is a tough boy, a kid who has fought the best of the bantamweights of the United States, and it was rather expected that he would get the decision over Paddy Owens, an equally fast and willing boy, but Owens took the fighting to him at all times and swapped punches in many rounds all to his favor.

They are both two-handed fighters and after the opening round they worked fast. In the early rounds Russell, who has a peculiar style of fighting which is nevertheless very effective, counted with his right repeatedly, but as the bout progressed Owens broke up this offensive and in the inner fighting had a shade the better of the New York lad. In the eighth, tenth and eleventh Owens had it anything a shade the better of Russell and the twelfth was an even break and as both boys were on their feet and apparently fresh, Glover declared it a draw.

In the semi-finals Billy Woods of Manchester, now a soldier at Fort Constitution, got the decision over Charlie Tremblay of the Navy. The latter is a good rugged boy and a clever boxer but he had not the experience or the hitting ability of the rugged soldier and in the last three rounds he stalled considerably to shy to the finish. With training and experience he is going to make a bad man in the ring.

Jimmy White got the decision over Johnny Walsh in the six-round preliminary, and it was a rattling good bout with both boys perfectly willing to trade punches.

A three-round extra bout was between Young Runka and Young Scatter of the Marine Corps, and they went three fast rounds to a draw.

Johnny Glover, the old time fighter, who is now in the navy, acted as referee and he handled the ring in fine shape, breaking up the long delays between bouts and keeping the boys working.

The Club announces a weekly show the bill to be announced later.

STRONGHEART GIVES TALK ON SOUTHERY

Chief Strongheart entertained the men on the U. S. S. Southery last evening and made a decided hit with his audience. He typified the real Indian and told of the manner of living, morals, education etc. At the conclusion of his talk he answered any questions asked of him. Among the men there was an Indian of the Choctaw tribe from Oklahoma, Strongheart and he talked in the sign language while the men of the ship watched them with interest. Before he left he was asked so many times for his address that he wrote it on a board that any who wished might copy it.

Strongheart appears before the U. S. Guards this evening at the shipping plant and tomorrow evening at Fort Foster.

He is topping at the Rockingham while here and during his leisure he enjoys going about the city looking up places of interest and studying up their history. He always carries his famous cane which was made by him self and its symbolism is most interesting. The staff represents the four elements. Starting at the bottom one reads up, interpreting the various emblems with little difficulty as he explains their meaning. The ear of corn at the bottom stands for the earth and its yield; a fish above is symbolic of the water; a hand stands for the air which is invisible, like the soul, the highest type of the highest thing man can be; and the hand pointing upward is as near as it can be represented, above these three emblems is an alligator, the symbol of "evil free." Surrounding all is a carved head, representing the Great Spirit—God. About this image hang many U. S. coins, beads and leather strips, to represent the good things one may attain if he lives up to the highest ideals.

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

If little stomach is sour, liver torpid or bowels clogged.

Mothers can rest easy, after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

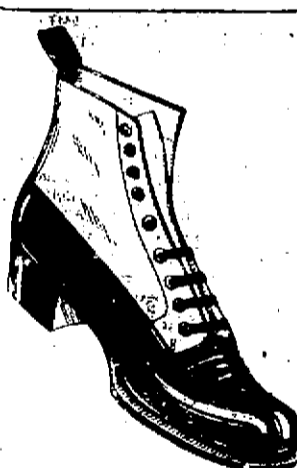

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what age your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

TO CONSIDER SCHOOL CONGESTION

A special meeting of the Board of Instruction was held on Wednesday forenoon to take action on the school situation at Atlantic Heights. The houses there are about to be opened and already there are a number of scholars there, but no school, the government not having started on the school building that was approved.

The local schools are badly congested already and the only solution seems to be a temporary school building at the Heights. A special committee was appointed to investigate the entire situation and report at the next meeting. The Board also considered the question of making up the time lost by the epidemic and a plan is under consideration, but the Board disapproved of any Saturday sessions.

In the absence of the Mayor Judge Paige presided and there were present Mrs. Benfield, Messrs. McCarthy, Gooding, Thayer, Newick, Knight and Mitchell.

LOWER, ALSO HIGHER TELEPHONE RATES

Washington, Oct. 31.—Postmaster General Durlison, when asked Wednesday about the reports that he would increase telephone rates in New York and elsewhere, declared that such is not his intention.

"Concerning that matter," said Mr. Durlison, "I will say this: A thorough investigation is being made with a view to standardizing telephone rates. On the report of the commission making that inquiry we hope to decrease rather than increase the rates."

"There is to be a readjustment of rates. Of course, in a few places there may be increases to bring all rates to a proper level, but in a majority of instances I look for lower rates."

OBSEQUIES

Mrs. Anna B. Joy

The funeral of Mrs. Anna B. Joy occurred at her late home, 3 Dearborn Place, on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Percy Warren Caswell, pastor of the Court Street Christian church, officiating. Interment was in the South cemetery.

The death of Mrs. Joy was especially sad and comes as a blow to her family and is much regretted by her friends and acquaintances. Her death was due to influenza, her illness being but a few days' duration. She became ill on Wednesday and obliged to take her bed and died early Sunday evening. Her age was 25 years; 11 months and 27 days.

Mrs. Joy was born in Lamolne, Me., but her parents moved to this city when she was but two years of age. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo F. Bowden, the latter having died five years ago.

Mrs. Joy was also known in Kittery and Elliot, having been a resident of those towns for some time. Her maiden name was Anna B. Bowden and she was united in marriage to Haven L. Joy Nov. 5, 1911.

She is survived by her husband, father, and a brother, Raymond W. Bowden, all of this city.

Mrs. Joy was a woman of most kindly characteristics and her little acts of kindness and benevolence endeared her to many. She was interested in the Red Cross and during the recent epidemic she lent a helping hand and assisted in the care of persons who were ill, ever ready to be of assistance.

She was devoted to her home and by her death her family is sadly bereft but her kind heart and excellent characteristics endeared her to family and friends and her memory will long be revered.

The floral tributes at the funeral were many and choice and as follows:

IN MEMORIAM.

Joseph Cleveland Chesley

The many friends of Joseph Cleveland Chesley were grieved and saddened to hear of his death at Denver, Col., on October 24th. Several years ago when his health failed him after a serious breakdown, he sought a drier climate in the hope that he might check the dread disease which had marked him as a victim. During the intervening years he had made a brave fight; ever hopeful, patient, cheerful and buoyant, as was characteristic of him; but the contest was an unequal one and the dread reaper finally claimed him.

"Joe," as he was familiarly known by his intimates, is remembered by many as a bright, happy, jovious soul, loyal to his associates, and generous to all. He made and held many friends. May he rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon him.

At Christ Church where he served first as a chorister and then as a chorister up to the time of his departure from the city, will be held on Friday morning at 10 o'clock the Requiem and Burial Service, to which his friends are invited. On beautiful All Saints, the day of the commemoration of God's holy ones, the last earthly rites will be performed—the last earthly honor paid to this servant of God.

May he through the Divine loving kindness be numbered with the Saints in glory everlasting.

From Hammond, Ind., comes the story of an efficiency clerk who was hired by a merchant to take an inventory of stock. He missed her for two days after he told that every piece of stock must be counted. When she returned to the office she handed him a slip reading: "There are 17,832 peanuts in the basement."

As a Unifying Power to the Nation Music is Welding a Magic Influence

It is making a Union out of many states—a Nation out of many nationalities.

When the Star Spangled Banner sweeps over the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and a hundred million voices give expression to the same sentiments of loyalty it means one hundred million people are drawing a little closer together.

As the nation needs music, as the army needs it, as the church needs it, so does every human being need it.

Music is a Primary Need in Every Home.

The Victrola makes it possible for every one to fill this need. There is one to fit everyone's pocketbook and our terms are easy. Drop in and see the different models.
